Andrea Lucy Arguello was born to Nicolas Q. & Maria O. Arguello on February 04th 1943. Lucy was raised by her late, loving grandparents Jose R. & Maria Q. Arguello. Her greatest qualities and gifts to her children and the world were that of absolute unselfishness, kind gifting, and loving care. Her advice “Consejos” were always a reflection of her true godly ways and she served our Almighty God in proper, dedicated, and unwavering fashion. Always one to put others before her, she was humble yet proud to champion the cause of the needy, poor, sick, and oppressed. There was never, “not enough” in her vocabulary; like our Lord Savior

Jesus Christ, she made “enough” out of very little and for all to share. Her daily prayers were always directed towards the world and others... never for self-appreciation or satisfaction. Her morals and ethics have Blessed and allowed her children to be strong, dignified ambassadors of the Almighty Gracious God. All who had the honor of meeting this tremendously loving, strong, beautiful soul can rejoice for her reunification with our absolute, wondrous God!

Andrea L. Arguello is preceded in death by her father Nicolas Q. Arguello, her mother Maria O. Arguello, grandparents Jose & Maria Arguello, sister Joanna Arguello.

Andrea is survived by her Children and their Spouses - Maria C. Arguello, Alfredo A. Arguello & partner Laura V. Garces, Cipriano E. Arguello & Pamela Longoria-Arguello, Guadalupe B.
