

Kathleen G. Ames of San Antonio, TX moved on to God's loving care on September 13, 2018, passing peacefully in her sleep following a recent operation. She was born September 28, 1953 in Lewiston, Maine. She will be forever remembered by her mother, Yolande Cameron and husband Joe, of Deland, Florida, her father, Wesley Ames, of Lewiston, Maine and her brother, Ray Ames and wife Patricia of Tualatin, Oregon.

Kathy is also survived by her granddaughter, Fiona Lydston, daughter-in-law, Kate Lydston, maternal aunts, Connie Cameron and Jean LeBel, and paternal uncle, Raymond Ames.

Kathy was preceded in death by her son, Paul E. Lydston Jr.

Kathy graduated from Randolph High School in Randolph, Massachusetts in 1971 and from secretarial school in 1972. She worked in various retail capacities for many years, but was most recently engaged providing in-home attendance services in San Antonio.

Kathy can best be remembered as a deeply caring daughter, sister, parent, grandparent, pet lover and friend. The family extends their thanks to her many friends who helped Kathy navigate her particularly unique life's adventures and challenges.

A memorial service and burial will be held in Lewiston, Maine at a later date.
