

In Loving Memory of Loretta D. Williams

Loretta D. Williams born on May 30, 1948 passed away on April 18, 2018. Loretta is preceded in death by her father Captain Robert F. Thompson (Ret.) USAF. She is survived by her mother, Verla Thompson, two sons Eugene D. Williams, and Mark V. Williams.

Loretta was raised in a military family, giving her the pleasure to travel to many different places in the world. She graduated in 1966 from Lee High School and enjoyed painting every chance she got. She always painted whatever it was that she envisioned at that moment she especially excelled at portrait painting.

Loretta will be greatly missed by everyone who knew and loved her. There will be a memorial service set for a later time.
