

Mary Ellen (Muffley) Maroulis was born on March 28, 1946 and was called home to be with our Lord on Tuesday, February 19, 2019 at the age of 72. She is reunited in Heaven with her husband, Efstathios Maroulis and her parents Eleanor (Reynolds) and James Muffley.

Mary Ellen Maroulis was loved and will be greatly missed by her son TJ , his wife Nicolette ; Grandchildren Efstathia and Alexandra; Brother James Muffley and numerous loving relatives and friends.

She was a compassionate and dedicated teacher who was beloved by her students and colleagues. Time can never erase the significant impact she made on so many lives. Her wisdom, guidance and love will always be remembered.

Mrs. Maroulis was generous throughout her life volunteering within the community. She never met a stranger and always found opportunities to serve others. Her most meaningful contribution was her volunteerism within the Catholic church.

"Grandma Emmie" loved her role as a grandma and recently moved to San Antonio to be closer to her grandchildren. Her eyes sparkled when she was with them. She made good use of her time in San Antonio and spent a lot of time with her "grandgirls" reading books, working on fun projects, dressing up and enjoying meals together.

Mary Ellen enjoyed traveling, visiting friends, spending time at the shore and painting.

Rosary and Mass will be held 10:00am at St. Anthony Claret Catholic Church Thursday February 28, 2019 Followed by Interment at Resurrection Cemetery at Cordi-Marian.

Mary Ellen was a wonderful woman that was loved, is missed, and will always be cherished.
