

Noah Roy Miller
March 23, 2017

Noah Roy Miller, age 32, went to be with his Lord on March 23, 2017, after a long battle with melanoma. He died peacefully at his home, surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Waco, Texas, he was the son of Larry and Irene Miller. The family moved to San Antonio in 1993. He was homeschooled through his junior year, and then attended St. Mary's Hall. He graduated in 2004. In 2005 he moved to Houston, and then moved back to San Antonio in 2014. Over the past twelve years, he coached at St. Mark's Episcopal in Houston, at San Antonio Christian Schools, and at SA FORCE Volleyball Club in San Antonio.

He was a loyal Spurs fan and loved playing basketball, volleyball, and golf. He was an avid reader and collected basketball cards most of his life. He will be remembered for encouraging his students and all who knew him to never give up. He drew comfort from his Saviour, Jesus Christ, during his battle with cancer.

He is survived by his parents, Larry and Irene Miller; his siblings, Helen Miller, Rebecca Wadsworth, Stephanie Miller, Nathaniel Miller, Andrea Miller, Jonathan Miller, Jennifer Miller, and Christopher Miller; his niece, Courtney Grace Miller; his nephew, Trevor Wadsworth; and his brother-in-law, Danny Wadsworth. He was predeceased by his grandparents, Peter and Helen Miller, and John and Mary Ella Barber.

A viewing will be held Monday, March 27, 4-8 p.m. at Funeral Caring USA inside of Alamo City Church, 6500 IH 35, San Antonio.

The Celebration of Life Service will be on Tuesday, March 28, at 1 p.m. at Wayside Chapel, 1705 NW Loop 410, San Antonio. It will be followed by a reception in the church's Fellowship Hall.

There will be a Celebration of Life Open House party Tuesday, March 28, from 6-9:30 p.m., at Crystal Sea Drama Company Fine Arts Studio, 8414 Speedway.
