

Ted Eugene Rigdon died on January 8th, 2019, from complications resulting from a heart attack he suffered in his home on December 30th, 2018. Ted was born on March 27, 1961, in Lima, Ohio, and graduated from Van Wert High School. He received his Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of Houston. Ted and his wife Gwen moved to San Antonio on Valentine's Day in 1998, making their life and raising their boys there. He worked for Culligan Water of San Antonio for almost twenty years.

He was a devoted father and husband and loved his family more than anything else in the world. He often said his sons were his greatest achievements, and he was devoted to his wife with an undying love. As a father, he made a point to cultivate interest in the things that interested his boys. He enjoyed playing video games with them and frequently read the books they were reading.

Music was an important part of Ted's life, lifting him up throughout the day. He loved attending rock concerts and playing his guitar. He also told life stories in funny and entertaining ways to anyone who would listen to him. His frequently detailed stories were a high point of family gatherings and will be missed so much by all who knew him. He loved movies, and the last thing he did on the afternoon of the 30th was go to the movies with his son.

Ted is survived by Gwen, his wife of 34 years, and sons Douglas and Gregory. He is also survived by his parents Ralph and Susan Rigdon, his two younger brothers James and Steven, and Steven's wife Jane, and Glenn and Sue Kable, Gwen's parents. His large, loving family includes his aunts and uncles, Edward and Mary Rigdon and Franklin and Priscilla Rigdon, in-laws Jon and Karen Kable, nephews Adam Kable, Brandon Rigdon, Logan Rigdon, and Nicholas Rigdon, nieces Megan Kable and Cassandra Walker, great niece, Abigail Kable, great nephews, Charles Kable, Levi Schmeidebusch, and Cole Schmeidebusch, and John Teeters, Gwen's grandfather.
