

Thomas Wennersten, 60, of Converse, Texas, succumbed to brain cancer in the comfort of his own home surrounded by his family November 1, 2018.

Thomas is survived by his wife Robin of 37 years, daughters Christina Mull, Monica (Adrian) Thomas and their three children Melonie, Caleb, and Marshall, Felica (Chris) Burke and their two children Tobias and Margo, and 4 brothers.

He was born January 8, 1958, to the late June Beck and Henning Wennersten in Holland, MI. He graduated from Comstock High School in 1977 where he went on to join the Navy. He made a lifelong career of being a military man, retiring after 20 years of service. He was not a man of many words, but if you talked to him, you knew how proud he was of his girls and grandchildren. He was very devoted to his work and his family, managing to juggle it all. He was resilient and strong beyond words. He was witty and made light of many hard situations. You could always count on him for a laugh or two. He raised his daughters to be strong and independent women. He fought a good fight and will be missed by many friends and family.
