

In Loving Memory of

William “Bill” Ellis Moore

Lieutenant Colonel (Retired) William “Bill” Ellis Moore, age 77, of San Antonio, Texas died peacefully surrounded by his family on Saturday, September 1, 2018 after a short courageous battle with cancer.

Bill was born on January 11, 1941 in Washington, D.C. to the late William Edward and Leola Josephine Ellis Moore. He grew up in McLean, Virginia. Bill graduated high school from Fork Union Military Academy and received a Bachelor of Arts in Biology from Texas Christian University and a Masters Degree in Hospital Administration from Baylor University.

He received his commission as Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1963 and began his military career initially as a Chemical Officer but was soon transferred to the Medical Service Corps. His assignments while on active duty in the Army included Vietnam, three tours at Fort Sam Houston, Texas; Fort Gordon, Georgia; Fort Knox, Kentucky; Tehran, Iran; Heidelberg, Germany, and Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He retired from the Army with almost 25 years of service to our nation in 1988 at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel (LTC). He then worked for 10 years with the Texas Department of Health as a Genetics Program Coordinator and volunteered extensively with the March of Dimes before retiring. Bill loved spending time with family and friends, traveling all over the world, and supporting military organizations, especially those who provided scholarships to military children.

Bill will be lovingly remembered by his wife of 52 years, Anita Susan (Beltran) Moore, daughter LTC(Ret) Michelle “Micki” McCassey and her husband, Everett, daughter Kimberly Dickinson and her husband Joel, precious granddaughter Kiera Grace McCassey, and many close family and friends from across his military career, recreational vehicle clubs (River City Travelers, Alamo SMART, and Monaco Wan-Na-Go) and San Antonio Rodeo committees.

A Celebration of Life service with full military honors will be conducted at 09:30 am, Friday, September 21, 2018 at the Fort Sam Houston Main Post Chapel, 1605 Wilson Way, San Antonio, TX 78234. Interment will be at the Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery in a private family setting.

Memorial contributions may be made in his honor to the Army Medical Department Museum Foundation, P.O. Box 340244, San Antonio, TX 78234, www.ameddmuseumfoundation.org, or Patriot Paws, 254 Ranch Trail, Rockwall, TX 75032, <http://patriotpaws.org/donate/>, or a charity of your choice in support of our military.
