

Jacob Cuellar Sr. was born on June 19, 1939. He grew up on the west side of San Antonio, Texas with his 2 brothers and 6 sisters. At the age of 21, he met his lovely wife Isabel. She fell in love with the way he danced, and he fell in love with her long black hair, and soon after, they married in the summer of 1960. They went on to have 4 children, 7 grandchildren, and 8 great-grandchildren.

In 1974 Jacob and Isabel came to know the truth, and together, decided to symbolize their dedication to Jehovah by baptism. It was his personal dedication to spend his life serving the true God Jehovah and to put Gods Kingdom first. He found great fulfillment and meaning by having a relationship with Jehovah God. He also experienced much joy and satisfaction in sharing the things he learned from the Bible with others and did so faithfully for the rest of his life.

Through out his life, Jacob was a hard worker and very industrious, always thinking about providing for his family. He was a good storyteller and always made people laugh with his jokes. Despite his failing health, he seemed to always defy the odds, whether it was fixing things around the house, working in the yard, helping his family, or telling his family he loved them, he continued doing so, even into his final days.

Jacob proved that he was very courageous and strong, and he faced death with the same strength he displayed in his life. For this reason Jacob was often referred to as “Superman” by his family. His strength and integrity will forever be an example to all that knew him.

He will be missed by all his family and friends, yet we are comforted to know that our dear loved one Jacob, takes his rest now, and just as he had a strong conviction in the resurrection hope, we too have the same hope, that we will very soon be reunited with Him. We await the time when “all those in the memorial tombs” will hear Jesus’ voice and “come out”, so that Jacob, who was a husband, our Dad, our Grandpa, and our friend can be reunited with all of us.
