Anna Lee (Pixie) Reynolds went to be with her Lord and Savior on October 28, 2020. She was born November 27, 1950, in Reading, PA, to Mr. John Jack Broskey and Mary (Majka) Broskey. In 1969, she married Edward T. Reynolds III and was married 45 years before his passing in 2014. Anna Lee attended Baylor University and received her Master's degree from Our Lady of the Lake University. While she traveled with her husband on his Air Force tours of duty, she was also a computer programmer who became a Licensed Professional Counselor practicing in San Antonio, TX. She ended her career as a counselor for Aetna Behavioral Health when she retired in 2016. She celebrated beauty and all the blessings the Lord has given, good or bad. She lived life, loved and encouraged others. She said her greatest success was her family, and Anna was happiest when everyone was doing well, and was happy and healthy.

Anna Lee is preceded in death by her father, John Jack Broskey, her loving husband, Edward T. Reynolds III and is survived by her mother, Mary Broskey, and her brothers Thomas Broskey of Mt. She will be greatly missed by her granddaughters Lauryn Reynolds and Ashley Alvarado, her grandson Brandon Chen, and especially by the Telschow family from Midland, TX, who will dearly miss their honorary Grandmom.

A graveside service will be held for Anna Lee Reynolds at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery on 16 November, 2020, 10:30 AM. As a true patriot, in lieu of flowers, Anna Lee would have liked donations to be made to the Washington Memorial Chapel's restoration fund in Valley Forge, PA.
