Austin had big dreams about being part of the entertainment world; he loved writing and singing his music. Even though Austin seemed reserved, he was a jokester, mostly with his closest friends. He enjoyed quoting movie lines with his brother Brandon and friends. It was a game they would play often.

Austin loved his family! He enjoyed taking his wife and son on random trips to Austin, TX to spend a weekend away. He loved spending time with his son, Princeton! Especially while playing video games and staying home; spending the day watching movies with his family. He adored his son Princeton, and the time he spent with him. He was overjoyed by the coming of his daughter.

Austin is going to be greatly missed by all his family and friends. Even though Austin left the Earth too soon, he is rejoicing in peace in Heaven. Austin will forever be in our hearts as he will forever be our Guardian Angel!
