

Carmello Caroline Margretta Click flew away to heaven on a cloud on Saturday, September 7, 2019. Carmel was born in Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania on May 26, 1932, to Italian immigrant parents, Pietro and Calgora. She was the youngest of nine children, five girls and four boys, all of whom preceded her in death. She met and married Reuben Click when he was visiting his sister, who had married Carmel's brother. Reuben and Carmel lived in Stroudsburg for eight years before moving to San Antonio, Texas, in 1964 with their first four children. Carmel was known for her wonderful meals, her friendliness to everyone she met, and her strong, tough personality. Throughout her 52 years in the same home in San Antonio, she shared her dishes and love with family, friends, neighbors and their children. The children in the neighborhood would often come to her when they needed a "grandma". She also helped those who were in need, sick or dying, by bringing meals to their home. She dearly loved her six children, ten grandchildren, eleven great-grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews, and her many friends. She loved to make all sorts of wonderful meals such as spaghetti and meatballs, tacos, garbanzo soup, Italian cookies, and delectable brownies. Carmel is preceded in death by her husband Reuben, her son Reuben Allen, and her first baby, Ann Marie. She is survived by the following: Her son James (Terri) Click, their four children, Marissa (Mike) Jimenez, James, Daniel, and Zachary; her son, Mark Click, her daughter Rita Click and her two children, Renee (Tim) Harris, Jacob (Patricia) Margretto, her daughter Mary (Bernhard) Sandberg, Mary's son, Ian (Savannah) Kelly, her daughter Kathy (Jesse) Martinez and their three children, Hilarie, Isabella, and Estrella, and all of her great grandchildren: Graciela, Timothy, Carmello, Nathan, Maylea, Anastasia, Alejos, Jeremiah, Melanie, Florencia and Alexander. Carmel will be deeply missed by all who knew her. She will be buried on Wednesday, September 11, 2019, at a private service. A celebration of her life will be held at her house on Friday, September 13, 2019, from 4:30-8:30. This will be an open-house celebration, so please come when it's convenient for you

