

Charlene Grey (Davis) Garrett of San Antonio, Texas went to be with her Heavenly Father on April 4, 2020 at the age of 81.

She was born on November 30, 1938 in Clarksburg, West Virginia to Clayborn Gray Davis and Melverna (Maxon) Davis. They moved to Wytheville, Virginia when Grey was 9 months old. She graduated from George Wythe High School at 16 and completed a Bachelor of Science Degree at the University of North Carolina when she was 20. Grey was accepted into the Army/Baylor Physical Therapy Program through Baylor University. She then served in the Army Medical Corps for several years and left the Army as a captain. After leaving the service, she practiced and taught physical therapy at the University of Minnesota Hospital before eventually moving to San Antonio and establishing a physical therapy program at the San Antonio Chest Hospital. She then founded and directed the physical therapy program at the San Antonio State Hospital. She retired from the State Hospital after 23 years and worked in private practice for several years thereafter.

In 1990 Grey met the love of her life and married-Kenneth Ray Garrett after more than 20 years of remaining single. Together they enjoyed all aspects of life-including dancing, traveling, casinos and wonderful friends.

Grey is preceded in death by her parents, Clayborn Gray Davis and Melverna (Maxon)Davis, brother, Joseph Addison Davis and step-son, Kenneth R. Garrett Jr.

She is survived by her wonderful and loving husband, Kenneth Ray Garrett, Daughter, Leah Beth (Brolling) Shiely and husband, Jerry Shiely.

She will be laid to rest at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery at a later date due to COVID-19.
