

Christiana Ovute Edoga

08/18/1949 – 06/21/2021

Mrs. Christiana Ovute Edoga was born on August 18th, 1949. She was born into the family of late Mr Okonkwo Onah & late Mrs Maria Ngwu of Amaze Uwelu in Ejuona Obukpa Autonomous community Enugu, Nigeria. She was a passionate elementary school teacher who was highly commendable. After several years of service, she retired to pursue other personal interests. She had and nurtured her six children and later joined her daughter in the United States in 2009 after the death of her beloved husband, Late Hon. Julius Edoga. Christiana spent a lot of time taking care of her grandchildren, which she did with so much pride and joy. Christiana loved her family so much, and she spent time visiting her children all over the world. She loved watching basketball, sewing, praying, reading the Bible, and cooking. Her presence meant there would always be good nutritious homemade food. She was one grandma that remembered all the birthdays of her twenty-five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Our hearts are filled with beautiful memories of her time on earth. Though life goes on without her, it can never be the same. Thank you, Mom, for loving and nurturing us all. We are privileged to have passed through your tutelage. Surely you have gone to be with the Lord, as the word says; that precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. We love you, but the Lord loves you much more.
