

Dale Alvin Rollins

Dec. 1, 1938- Feb. 22, 2021

Dale was born and raised in Oklahoma City.

He joined the military and served his country in the Korean War. After the military, he ran several successful small businesses, eventually moving to San Antonio, TX.

While in San Antonio, Dale met the love of his life, Beverly Sailors and they developed a love for antiques. They established their own business, "The Antique Center" and ran it successfully over the next 30 years. They enjoyed traveling all over the country in search of finding rare and special items.

Dale was known as the "Jukebox King" because there wasn't jukebox he couldn't fix! He even sold them to local celebrities like musician George Strait.

Dancing? There was none better! Dale could dance with the best of them and never miss a beat!

Dale's energy and happiness will be sorely missed but his spirit will be with us forever.

He is survived by his partner and best friend, Beverly Sailors along with her daughters, Christina Sailors Turner, Victoria Sailors French and her husband, James V. French.

If desired, please make a donation in Dale's memory to Alamo Hospice and or your favorite animal rescue group.

Thank You!
