

David Jennings Hewitt
12/14/1949 – 08/12/2020

David Jennings Hewitt, 70, passed away on Wednesday, August 12, 2020, in New Braunfels, Texas. Dave was born on December 14, 1949 in Wapeton, North Dakota to Bette Lou Bruner and Jennings Pervatte Hewitt. He is preceded in death by his parents.

Dave is survived by his daughter, Theresa J. Hewitt of San Antonio, and sons, JD Hewitt of San Antonio and Victor Hewitt of San Antonio; sisters Sherry Brendsel of New Braunfels and Cathy Crocker of Prescott, Arizona; he is also survived by one grandchild, Akira Hewitt of San Antonio.

Dave was raised in Rapid City, Platte, and Yankton, South Dakota. He graduated from Yankton High School in 1968. He then went on to University of South Dakota, graduating in 1974 with a BS Biochemistry and BS Medical Technology. He worked in sales, sales management and marketing for several major hospital and laboratory supply companies in his career. Dave was an avid story teller and always had a good joke to share. He was involved with boy scouts and enjoyed camping and hiking with his family for summer vacations and in the fall at various Texas State Parks. One of his favorites was the Folk Music festival in Newton Hills State Park, South Dakota every summer. Family and friends would come and enjoy the fellowship and music. At days end he could be found playing the guitar around a campfire. Dave was a very generous man and loved entertaining at his home.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
