

Dolores "Dee" Nemeth joined the angels of heaven peacefully in her sleep at age 87, August 4, 2018. She was a beautiful, sassy, hilarious, stubborn and extremely loving wife, mother, aunt, grandmother, and friend. She is reunited with her late husband, John "Big John" Nemeth, eldest son Johnny Nemeth and grandson John Edward Nemeth. She leaves behind her two sons David and Paul Nemeth, 10 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren with a legacy of fierce love for her family and creating humor and laughter in every situation. Dolores was born May 27, 1931 in Dillonvale, Ohio and was 1000% Polish. She and her husband got their family started in a traveling carnival which has been the family business for 3 generations now. Dolores loved Elvis, dalmatians, angels, clowns and carousel horses. To know her, was to love her. She was a colorful soul whose memories will be always remembered, loved and cherished.
