

Erma Fay Potter
03/09/1933 – 11/05/2020

Erma Fay Potter died at home surrounded by her family on Thursday, November 5, 2020, at the age of 87 years, 7 months, and 26 days. Erma was preceded in death by her husband Vester, son Phillip, brothers Ray and Jim Kimery, and sisters Avon Huhnke and Mary Tracy. She is survived by her children Karen Huhnke and husband Mike, Monica Wilson and husband Ken, Ronald Potter and Kim Ross, Kelly Potter, and Shelly Below and husband Ron. She is also survived by her two brothers Don and Richard Kimery, and five sisters, Lela Guffin, Pat Fisher, Reba Keaton, Elsie Martin, and Sue Scott. She is also survived by ten grand children, fifteen great grands, and two great great grands.

She was born on March 9, 1933, to Ralph and Clara Kimery in rural Johnson County, Indiana. She married the love of her life, Vester Potter, on December 26, 1954, and later adopted six children. They resided in Indiana for many years then relocated to San Antonio, Texas in 1968. She spent the remainder of her life in various towns in Texas.

She devoted her life to being a mother and devoted wife. During their retirement years, she and Vester traveled around the country with The Pioneers of America, a camping group of retired telephone men. Once Vester's health began to fail him, she became his committed caregiver until his death.

A grave side funeral service is scheduled for 1:00 PM on Wednesday, November 25, 2020, under shelter one at Fort Sam Houston. The service will be officiated by Pastor Barry Donham of Pipe Creek Community Church. Due to COVID, we are limited to fifty people and only three floral arrangements. Because of these restrictions, in lieu of flowers you can make a memorial donation to the arthritis foundation at www.arthritis.org
