

Geraldine Elizabeth Womack, of San Antonio, Texas, passed away on Friday, August 28, 2020.

Geraldine was born in the Panama Canal Zone on March 17, 1944. She was the loving daughter to Wayne and Myrtle Wiggs.

Geri, as most friends and family referred to her, married the love of her life James Carver Womack on October 15, 1965.

She accomplished a lot in her life, but to those that knew her best, she was a caring mother, loving wife, Sunday School teacher and devoted Christian who loved to share her faith with anyone who would listen. Geri had many passions in life that she pursued. She was a foster mom for The Methodist Mission Home, as well as The State of Texas, and had the pleasure of keeping over 310 babies and/or children while they were waiting to be placed for adoption. She also was a member of the Daughters of the Nile organization which teamed up with the Shriners Hospital. This organization would help organize fundraisers as well as volunteer to make quilts, gowns, dolls and just positively impact those young patients in a number of ways.

Jim and Geri also loved to travel. One of their favorite places to visit was Colorado. They loved going up to their "quiet little cabin in the woods." Having friends and family come up there to visit them was one of their greatest joys.

Geri is preceded in death by her parents Wayne and Myrtle Wiggs. She is survived by her loving, devoted husband of 55 years James Carver Womack, also known as Jim or Mr. Wonderful.

She is also survived by her two brothers, Jimmy and David; two sons James Lee Womack of San Antonio and Matthew Womack of Houston, and daughter, Susan Sutaris of Phoenix, Arizona; and six amazing grandchildren! She was so proud of each of her children and grandchildren and just beamed with pride as she spoke about them and all their activities. Needless to say, she will be greatly missed by all of her friends and family!

The visitation/viewing will be held on Monday, September 21, 2020 at the Alamo City Church (6500 N I-35, San Antonio, TX 78218) from 1:00-5:00 PM.

On Tuesday, September 22, 2020, we will have a church service celebrating her life. The service will be at Mission City Church formerly known as Castle Hills Baptist Church (220 NW Military Hwy, San Antonio, TX 78213). Directly following the service, we will head over to the Ft. Sam Houston cemetery. Unfortunately, due to Covid restrictions, they are only allowing immediate family members to attend the actual funeral. We truly apologize that not everyone will be able to attend, but all friends and family are invited to her Celebration of Life reception at Evers Road Christian Church (5258 Evers Rd, San Antonio, TX 78238) following the funeral. We would love to see you there.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation to the Shriners Hospital for Children. You can make a donation in her name to:
