Grace was very fond and loved her father and mother in laws Vidal and Irene Rodriguez and their children who she considered her brother and sister Tracie Ray Rodriguez and Syndi Jones who all preceded her in death. She leaves behind her son Rogelio “Roger” Rodriguez Jr. and wife Carina Rose Rodriguez. Grandchildren Victoria Rose Rodriguez and Alexander Ray Rodriguez. Grace also leaves behind the father of her children and lifelong loving friend Rogelio Rodriguez Sr. and sister in law Sonia R. Coultress. She also leaves behind aunts and nieces, nephews, cousins, and close friends.

Grace was born on January 20, 1949 in San Antonio, Texas. She was a beautician by trade and went on to work at The Kelly Officers Club at Kelly Air Force Base in which she loved and boasted about the club she loved so much. Grace enjoyed the military way of life and all the people she met through the years as an Air Force wife and working at the Kelly Officers Club.

Her hobbies included playing cards, trivia games, music – Motown was her favorite. Grace was a diehard Dallas Cowboys and San Antonio Spurs fan. Grace loved to cook making her famous Tacos or Crispy Dogs. She could make them taste like a gourmet dinner in which she made with love and her table settings were legendary for two or more people.

Grace was a true friend who always remembered birthdays and anniversaries and would do anything for her family and friends. She would say as she entered a room,

“Never fear! Grace is here!”
