

Ms. Imogene Smith
(Gene)

Imogene (Boyd) Smith was born on May 7, 1960 in Fort Walton Beach, Florida but lived in San Antonio, Texas. On Monday, June 1, 2021, the loving mother of three was called to her eternal home at the age of 61.

Imogene was an avid reader and artist who enjoyed novels, gardening, scrapbooking, and crocheting remarkable textiles that she proudly shared with her children, grandchildren, family, and friends. She also loved spending time with her family and watching her children accomplish their dreams. She was known for her quick wit, her infectious smile, her love for God, and her kind and compassionate spirit.

Imogene is survived by her former husband, Randolph Smith and their children Yolanda (Meka) Chatman, Randolph A. Smith, and Darnell Smith. She also leaves to cherish her memory her Son-In-Law, Anthony Chatman; Daughter-In-Law, Candace Smith; her grandchildren: Kristofer Chatman, Sierra Chatman, Jae'lin Cook, Ayanna Hill, Randolph A. Smith, Jr., Symone Smith, Darnell Smith, Jr., and Dalvin Smith; her brothers, Timothy Boyd and Kenneth Boyd; her Aunt, Mattie Lois Boyd, and several cousins, nieces, and nephews. She was preceded in death by her mother, Alene Boyd.

John 10:27-29

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand.”

