Jeremy was deeply blessed with a large extended family of multiple great-aunts and great-uncles as well as aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Jeremy spent his time learning the ropes of being a brand new dad as well as helping many people whether, it was a meal or a goofy smile to make you laugh. He enjoyed competitive bowling, fishing and hunting with his brother and dad. He took great pride in helping his "Grammie" with gardening and handiwork around her house. His giving heart was enormous and he definitely left footprints in peoples lives. Viewing will be at:
