

Jim Brown Roman

Jim was born February 1970

Jim was granted his wings on November 2, 2020.

He was a good son and good man. Jim was a simple man that cared for others, he liked working with his hands and enjoyed carpentry.

Jim loved animals and had his dog Gonzo, he would warn people about his dog, "Be careful with Gonzo he is a psycho dog" Gonzo was aggressive.

One Christmas Jim made little reindeers made out of mesquite wood with red noses and big eyes.

He gave them to nurses at the clinic where he went for medical appointments.

Jim was a God fearing man and a spiritual man. He would post daily bible scriptures on Facebook for his friends to read and reflect.

Jim will be missed very much, he was one of a kind. He considered himself a "Lone Wolf"
