

Obituary for Leonardo Muli

Leonardo “Dingo” Morales Muli, 71, passed away unexpectedly, on Tuesday, March 31, 2020 at his home in San Antonio, Texas. Leonardo was born April 5, 1948 to Augustine and Maura in Angeles City, Philippines. He graduated from Northwestern Academy of Pampanga in 1964.

Leonardo was blessed with a large and loving family. He was a devoted, respectable, and selfless father, husband, and friend. He was known as a skilled and intuitive musician, simply the best left-handed guitar player. Music was his passion and motivation. He was a spiritual man who cherished church services. He was kind and soft-spoken, always patient, and just enjoyed being around the people he loved. He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him.

Leonardo is survived by his loving wife, Lauren; daughter, Nina Muli; sons Mark, James and John Tunacao; 8 grandchildren; 7 siblings; and many loving cousins, nieces, nephews and relatives. Leonardo was preceded in death by his parents.
