

Melvel
White Clyde
1942-2021

January 15, 1942 - June 20, 2021

Melvel White Clyde, born in Kingsville, Texas on January 15, 1942, died on June 20, 2021, in her home in San Antonio, Texas after struggling with leukemia. For 35-years, she was a member of the San Antonio community with ties to the Oak Hills Church, Women of Faith, and Grace House.

Melvel is survived in life by her mother, Vera June Oberg. She is also survived by three sons and their wives: Ron and Penny, Rick and Reta, and Russ and Vivian. Additionally, she is survived by two sisters, Ruth Foster and Linda Bell, and one brother, Gus White III. She has nine grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, one sister-in-law, and two brothers-in-law.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Mearl Eugene Clyde; her father, Gus White Jr.; sister Emma Elizabeth Pitts; and brothers-in-law Don Foster, Raymond Clay Clyde, Kenneth Clyde, and Lee Clyde.

Melvel was a great witness to the world of a life well-lived. She was a devoted wife, mother, and GrandMommy. She loved Christ and spent her life's energy in service and worship. In her youth, she was an active athlete playing organized basketball and softball. Over several decades, she taught many children the stories of the Bible. She enjoyed loving her family and serving the underprivileged.

A Celebration Ceremony will be held July 17, 2021, 1:00 pm in the Bluebonnet Room of the Oak Hills Church - Crownridge.
