

Mildred C. Saathoff (Maddox) "Mimi" peacefully passed into the arms of her savior before dawn on June 1st. Mimi lived the fullest of lives with her 104 years. She is dearly loved by all who know her and is already missed. Mimi is preceded in death by her loving husband Norman M. Saathoff; and her dearest sister Dorothy Cox, and her last husband, Ivan G. Maddox. Mimi is mourned by her son and daughter in-law Norman and Jan Saathoff, her daughter and son in-law Sheryl and Chuck Swenson. She also leaves behind her daughter Bunnie. She will be greatly missed by her caregivers Maria Soto and Sonia Sanchez who loved her and always made her laugh during the tough times. Mimi adored her grandchildren: Elizabeth, Ann-Catherine, Margaret, Caroline, Susannah, Martha, Albert, and Amanda. She cherished her great-grandchildren: Luke, Travis, Wyatt, Norman, and Kurt. Family was everything. Words cannot fully describe the gentle fullness of her life. We will remember her deep devotion and love always.
