Goodbye My Love, My Touchstone, My Friend... I can't wait to see your smiling face again.

Love Always Karen

How do you write an obituary about a man who meant so much to so many people. How do you reduce His life to small paragraphs. Trying to explain a man who was greater than this earth. Whose love for life and people was phenomenal. To explain his love for his Country and the Military. His hobbies, his humor, his smile, his laughter, his pain, sweat and tears. Nothing I write will tell how much he was liked, loved and worshipped. I worshipped the ground he walked on.

He was My Daddy, My Hero, My Everything!! How Do I put You into Words, Daddy??

Papa,

To my one and only friend, thank you for teaching all that you knew, from your experience and knowledge about airplanes, all the makes, models and styles of cars, and the Air Force and about Football and the Dallas Cowboys.

Forever Yours Nathaniel

Robert was Loved and will be greatly missed by his Wife, Karen, Daughter, Natalie, Grandson, Nathaniel Robert, "Momma" Viola Horton, His Sisters Jerry Guerra and Terry Alaniz and extended Family and Friends.
