

Susie Elizabeth Pierce Harrison Greenfield passed away peacefully in her home on November 23, 2020 in San Antonio, Texas. She is preceded in death by her husband Bobby Harrison, Sr., mother Dorothy Elizabeth Barnes, and father Charles Martin Pierce.

Susie was born on November 16, 1941 in Norfolk, Virginia. Being a military spouse and homemaker, she had the opportunity to live in Virginia, North Carolina, Texas, and Hawaii. While raising her six children, Susie spent what free time she had playing softball with her church and teaching vacation bible school in the summers. Upon the death of her first husband and after the marriage to her second husband, Susie eventually settled in San Antonio, Texas, home of her beloved San Antonio Spurs. Susie loved baking, up until the time of her passing, for her large family, many friends, and close neighbors. Susie will be forever remembered for her open heart and honest tongue.

She is survived by her second husband David Allen Greenfield; siblings Dorothy Morgan and husband Jerry Morgan, Joyce Pierce, Charles 'Buddy' Pierce and wife Rose Pierce, Mary Pierce and husband Mike Glenn, Mark Pierce and wife Tonya Pierce, and Linda Pierce; children Susan Miller and her husband Todd Miller, Ann Streno and her husband Anthony Streno, Bobby Harrison, Jr. and his wife Mayrose Harrison, James Harrison, Norma Villarreal and her husband Donald Villarreal, and Denise Ingram and her husband Mark Ingram; fourteen grandchildren; and growing number of great-grandchildren.

No funeral or memorial service is immediately planned. The family will notify loved ones in the future when a memorial is scheduled.
