

Radamis Alfaro Roman
May 20, 1937 - September 17, 2017

Radamis Alfaro Roman ("El Viejo"), 80, joined his Lord and Savior in Heaven on Sunday, September 17, 2017.

Just kidding - Radamis didn't believe in all of that "pontifical hooey". Even though he was as strong (and as stubborn) as a bull, la mardita cancer spread faster than he could say ¡coño! Radamis died while taking a nap, on the very day he was to be sent home from the hospital.

Radamis was born in Isabela, Puerto Rico, on May 20, 1937, to Agripina Roman Gonzales and Ezequiel Alfaro Roman. He served his country in the United States Air Force for 23 years, earning the rank of Technical Sergeant, before settling down in San Antonio, Texas.

Radamis is survived by his wife of 35 years, Maria del Carmen Alfaro; 9 children (that we know of): Alvin, Radames Jr., Sandra, Raymond, Harold, Yira, Elbert, Yamairah and Cassandra; numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, cousins, and over 4,900 Facebook friends.

Radamis was preceded in death by his mother, father, and siblings: Heriberto, Arael, Calept, Eligio, Delba, Minerva and Leonor.

Visitation services will be held on Tuesday, September 26, from 12:00 PM - 5:00 PM at Funeral Caring USA, 6500 N Interstate 35, San Antonio, Texas, 78218 (in the Alamo City Christian Fellowship Church complex). Memorial services will be held on Thursday, September 28, at 10:30 AM, at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery, 1520 Harry Wurzbach Road, San Antonio, Texas, 78209.

In lieu of flowers or prayers, write a post on Radamis' Facebook page sharing your fondest memory of him, or make a toast in his honor.

"Tomorrow is another day to start again." – Radamis
