

James Thomas Chilton Jr.
July 6, 1952 - August 30, 2017

James (Chilly) Thomas Chilton, Jr. of San Antonio, Texas, passed away on Wednesday, August 30, 2017 at the age of 65. James spent his final days accompanied by his loving wife and daughter cracking jokes until the very end.

James is survived by his loving wife, Sheree of 39 years, daughter Nicole (David) Vince, grandchildren Mia and Lexi Vince; sisters Linda (David) Friesenhahn and Barbara (Lee) Taylor, and many loving nieces, nephews, and extended family. James was a loving father, husband, grandfather, brother, and friend to all. He is preceded in death by his parents James Thomas Chilton, Sr. and Barbara Bruner Chilton.

Born in Washington, DC, and his parents being military, James spent much of his childhood traveling and attending schools in Colorado, Germany, Massachusetts, and eventually settling in San Antonio. He was a graduate of Southwest High School in 1970.

James met his wife, Sheree in 1978 and soon thereafter they began a new journey together in Denver, Colorado. Colorado remained the place his heart called home even after returning to San Antonio 12 years later. James was a dedicated and a lifelong brother of the Bandidos Motorcycle Club for 38 years.

Services will be held on Saturday, September 9, 2017 with Funeral Caring USA at Alamo City Church located at 6500 N Interstate 35.

Visitations will begin at 1:00 p.m. to be immediately followed by the funeral service to at 3:00 p.m.
